

Comprehensive School Counseling Program

A family of life-long learners committed to the journey of inquiry into the development of our whole self: academic, social, and emotional.

A comprehensive school counseling program:

- serves all students
- includes large and small group counseling
- incorporates individual counseling
- works with all stakeholders: parents, teachers, and community

A school counselor is an educator who:

- Advocates for the student at school.
 - Provides Individual and Small Group Counseling
- Works with teachers and parents to provide helpful suggestions and support for children's needs.
- Provides Classroom Guidance for every class.
- Helps in identifying academic and social/emotional needs of children.
- Helps children understand themselves and others.
- Provides information about community resources that would benefit children.
- Makes referrals to outside agencies.
- Provides parents with resources and information.
